

Rt 56 Lock-In Rules and Expectations

All Youth must sign indicating their agreement to these rules.

All adult/high school volunteers are in charge of maintaining the event and keeping everyone safe. Any request made by a volunteer must be followed immediately.

Each Youth is expected to stay the entire event, unless other arrangements are made with a parent or guardian. If you plan to arrive late, you must make arrangements ahead of time.

Once the event begins, doors will be locked. You will not be able to leave the church building without adult supervision. If this rule is broken, parents will be called and expected to pick up their Youth regardless of the hour.

☐ At no point will boys be allowed in the girls bathroom. At no point will girls be allowed in the boys bathroom.

All lock-in participants must respect others' physical boundaries.

Inappropriate behavior (physical intimacy, wrestling, hitting, etc) is not permitted.

If you have any medication that may need to be taken during this event, you must give the medication to an adult along with a note from a parent explaining the dosage and need.

Any and all electronic devices (ipods, mp3/4 devices, cameras, video games, etc) must be left at home for this event. Cell phones (for emergency use only) may be brought, but must be given to an adult when entering the event.

Be considerate and respectful of other participants and leaders. Any activity that demeans, disrespects, or undermines our beliefs and standards will not be tolerated.

Be respectful of the church building. Clean up after yourself. If you spill something, please clean it up. All areas of the church used for the lock-in must be cleaned before leaving on November 3rd.

The Lock-In does not officially start until 7pm. We will open the doors and begin check-in at 6:45pm.

Parents must be present to drop off and register their Youth at the sign-in table.

The Lock-in finishes at 6 am. Parents are expected to be at the church to sign out and pick up Youth by 6:15 am.

No Youth will be allowed to participate without a signed Rules and Expectations form.

Violation of these rules will result in disciplinary action and may include the Youth being asked to leave the lock-in. Parents will be called to pick up. Please sign below stating that you have read all the rules and you will follow all of them.

Please also have a parent sign below, stating that they too have read all rules and are fully aware of what happens if these rules are not followed.
